

North Carolina Association of Nursing Student's Annual Conference in Wilmington, NC March 4th-5th, 2017

Official Keynote Speaker is Alice Benjamin, R.N.

Her experience and expertise on nursing will lead our conference and inform attendees how to become the best nurse you can be!

Register for the Conference on our website: <http://ncans.org> and click on the Events and Meetings tab at the bottom

Nurse Alice is a nationally board certified and award winning Cardiac Clinical Nurse Specialist and was also the 1st African American nurse elected to the American Nurses Association/California Board of Directors. She also serves as chairman for the American Heart Association's Western States Multicultural Task Force.

She is the author of "Curb Your Cravings: 31 Foods to Fool Your Appetite" and the highly anticipated "28 Ways in 28 Days"

Transition of the Nursing Student to the New Nurse: How to Put Your Best Self Forward